A settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit against Pacific Guardian Life Insurance Company, Ltd. (“Defendant”) involving a Cybersecurity Incident suffered by Defendant where cybercriminals potentially accessed Defendant’s system containing individuals’ Private Information on or about August 25, 2023. The Private Information includes sensitive information including, but not limited to, names, Social Security numbers, financial account information, payment card information, dates of birth and medical information. Plaintiffs allege negligence, negligence per se, breach of implied contract, unjust enrichment, invasion of privacy, and violations of various Hawaii laws.

Who is Included? Records indicate you are a Settlement Class Member which includes: all individuals who were notified that their Private Information was potentially compromised in the August 2023 Cybersecurity Incident.

What does the Settlement Provide? As a Settlement Class Member, you may submit a Claim Form online or by mail postmarked by December 21, 2025, for the following Settlement benefits:

Expense Reimbursement: You may submit a Claim Form, for unreimbursed losses related to the Cybersecurity Incident for up to $2,000 per Settlement Class Member, which must be accompanied by supporting documentation; OR

Alternative Cash Payment: Instead of Expense Reimbursement, without providing documentation, you may submit a Claim Form to receive an Alternative Cash Payment up to $50;

California Confidentiality of Medical Information Act (CMIA) Cash Payment: If you are residing in California at the time you submit your Claim Form, and the CMIA applies, you may elect to receive an additional Alternative Cash Payment up to $20;

AND

Credit Monitoring: In addition to the Expense Reimbursement or Alternative Cash Payment, you may also submit a Claim Form to receive two years of free Credit Monitoring.

Other Options. If you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement, you must submit an opt-out postmarked by November 21, 2025. If you do not opt-out, you will give up the right to sue and will release the Released Persons from the Released Claims in this lawsuit. If you do not opt-out, you may object to the Settlement by November 21, 2025. The Long Form Notice on the settlement website explains how to opt-out or object. If you do nothing, you will get no Settlement benefits, and you will be bound by the Settlement and any judgments and orders. The Court will hold a Final Fairness Hearing on January 13, 2026, to consider whether to approve the Settlement, Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fees of up to $550,000 and costs, and any objections. You or your lawyer may attend and ask to appear at the hearing if you object, but you are not required to do so.

This notice is a summary. The Settlement Agreement and more information about the lawsuit and Settlement are available at www.PGLIdatabreach.com or by calling toll-free 1-833-341-1193.
